BLAH, BLAH, BLAH 21

This month's blah will be a mish mash of all sorts of junk. First off, Todd's appearances in New York, at FAO Schwarz and in LA, at the Puzzle Zoo; both went well. Todd thanks you for taking the time to visit him. Because of the Zoo appearance, Todd and the toys were mentioned on seven LA tv stations and CNN and NBC took the coverage nationwide, thanks to Alan Saffron. Todd's last signing was at the Ft. Hood Army Base in Texas, where he drew a huge crowd. From there it was off to San Diego for the Image ComicCon. Yet again, Todd was bombarded with hordes of kids, Spawn figures in hand, wanting autos.

Yours truly was in New York last week working on some licensing deals for Spawn. I will keep you informed as they progress, or not. For those of you lucky enough to live in or around the city, check out the Kinokuniya Bookstore in Manhattan, they have an incredible assortment of Japanese comics, books and such. From there it was off to Detroit, for two incredibly long days of toy meetings. Whew. Todd Toys is growing by leaps and bounds and one of the more interesting discussions was our international launch of the toys next year. We will be shipping all action figures to some of the following: UK, Australia, Brazil, Philippines, Germany, Scandinavia, France, Italy, Malaysia, and on and on. I will update you once the deals are signed. The toys continue to fly off of the shelf. By December 31, 1994, we will have shipped our entire 1994 order, right on schedule! Not bad for a company that has only existed for less than one year.

Well, X-Mas is around the corner, and I would like to thank the following, in no specific order, for helping to make 1994 such a successful year for not only myself, but Spawn, Todd Toys et al: Big Toddie himself, Wanda, Jay, Paul, Bill, Gretchen, Beth and all at Todd Toys, Frank Miller, Alan Moore, Grant Morrison, Neil and Mike Gaiman, toy whizzes Tony and Ed, Andy, the Hornes, HBO, Mike DeLuca @ NLC, our ILM buds Clint, Mark, Spaz and new addition Ty, Kim Kolomyjec, Uncle Kenny, Auntie Gerry, Cousins Blake, Bob and Mike H., the one and only Sylvie and Gabe duo, Larry, Germaine, Kelly, Teresa, Kenny, Ronna, Shay, Mary, Doug, Tony, et al at Image, and everyone else who has helped in some way, even Peter David (who continues to entertain Todd and I). But most importantly, thank you to all of our readers. Have a jolly Ho-Ho, see ya next year.

-Terry Fitzgerald
